About Casey's Challenge:
Casey was born with spina bifida that left him paralyzed from the waist down. From a young age, he had the opportunity to participate in adaptive sports which changed his life. He desires to see other individuals with physical disabilities healthy, active and participating in sports. Due to the high cost of equipment, many are unable to participate. All proceeds of Casey's Challenge will directly benefit ASPO.

About ASPO:
Adaptive Sports Program of Ohio (ASPO) is a nonprofit organization established to promote the health and wellness of individuals with physical disabilities through competitive and recreational adaptive sport opportunities across Ohio.

Team registration:
The team with the largest number of participants will win the "Wheel of Excellence" to display at the location of their choice for one year.
